Dear Sir.

I had the pleasure of reading of your Society in the Evening Journal that your Society had 41.000 Coins. I am a great admirer of Coins. I have a Collection of 1.500. Coins myself. will you kindly inform me if your Society has a Visiting Night for Strangers. So they can Admire your large Collection of Coins and learn.
and thanking you in advance for same.

I Remain Yours.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter to President Fleming to hand referred to me for reply.

The Society's building will not be officially open to the public until fall.

Should you however care to visit us some day we may be glad to have you do so any Wednesday or Saturday afternoon, at which time one of the Curators, Mr. Peddle, would be glad to show you such parts of our collection as might interest you.

Truly yours

J. Newman Le Peddle
Recording Secretary
